Servants

The final act; the curtain falls
Upon the Messmer lives
Of these, our graduates.
This book, the story of their lives
In school.

Their pictures here, a record of Activities, the roles
They played as Seniors, all
In tales of clubs,
Athletics, academic work,
A retrospect of years of striving,
Crowned with earned success.

A story, too, of Messmer High—
These graduates with choices manifold

In Science, English, Art,
And Business, Mathematics, strong,

Will leave these cherished halls
Prepared for their careers.

A varied program in humanities
Befell their lot, if they but showed
The skill and will to brave such task.

And when a weakness showed,
The kindly aid of faculty,
Well trained in guidance, lifted them

To new ambitions, won results.
And they were challenged, too,
And, as they met the challenges,
Found growth to wing them on
The way to fame.

God speed, we wish them now;
And, as they face the darts of life,
In college and the world,
The grace to face and fight
The forces they must meet.
God speed them on their way,
To lives for which their school
Prepared them well.
God speed and bless them all.

Ann Marie Corfeld, advanced art student, is drawing posters for the fall frolic sponsored by the Men of Messmer in Messmer's Gym.

Both the art classes and the mechanical drawing classes are now taught in the new Rectory. This building is shown in the picture below.

When Messmerites started school this September the disorder of the expressway under construction was there to greet them.

Have Capitol, will travel!

Here Sister Mary Ernestine has all the yearbooks which were edited during her six years in office as Vice-Principal.

This year's graduation will coincide with the termination of Sister Mary Ernestine's eighteen years of service at Messmer. According to Canon Law, Sister is prepared for a change, since she has completed her six years as Superior of the Convent Community.

Sister Mary Ernestine's kindness, wisdom and helpful guidance have been instrumental in bringing about a more progressive Messmer and better Messmerites. Her departure leaves behind appreciative memories in the hearts of all.

Messmer's annual retreat, which was conducted by Rev. Edward Day, C.S.S.R., and Rev. John Hoffman, C.S.S.R., took place in October, and was an unforgettable experience.

Modern Dance classes taught by Mrs. Sheehan were among the new features at Messmer this year. Susan Van De Zande, Mary Jean Janzen and Jean Laumann are interpreting the Devil's Ballet from the Christmas performance, The Stingiest Man in Town.

Members of the Library Club make it possible for Messmer students to pursue their studies and research projects easily. They assist Sister M. Consuela in keeping the library clean and in excellent order.

No field of learning is neglected in this bright spot of books where one can be the first man in outer space or travel back to the edge of eternity. Here the good years are always present to enjoy, and Mr. Citizen need not fear the enemy within, only the bell which will end the affair.

Messmer students are members of the Junior Achievement Organization whose purpose is to teach young people the meaning and importance of free enterprise. In Junior Achievement, students learn among other things, business management, the keeping of records, and cooperation with business associates. Junior Achievement is organized to form the leaders of tomorrow.

In the picture, M. Herden, P. Rudolph, D. Merkle, K. Daegelen and P. Costa discuss the advantages of their Junior Achievement product.

Nun's Story

Sister M. Praxedes is presenting R. Bauer with a Red Cross Certificate on the successful completion of a course which is given at Messmer every year for one fourth of a semester in operation Homemaking.

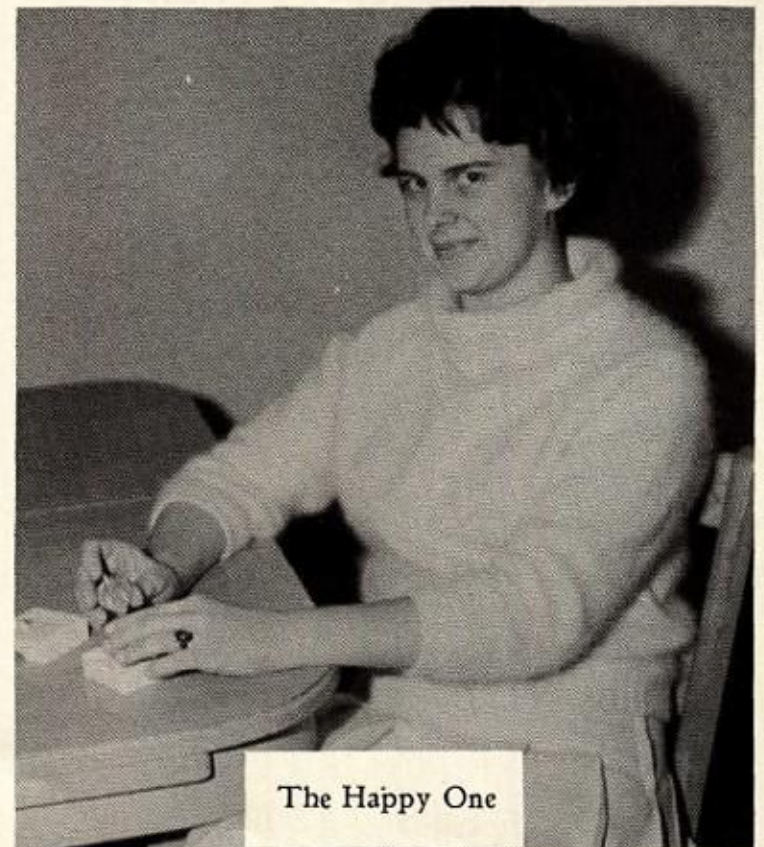

Two "Hams" in Outer Space

Margo, the hamster held by K. Hartenstein, and Twelve-fifty, the other animal held by J. Narr, are being carefully watched and trained by S. Dolezal and B. Hertel. Who knows, maybe they can outspace Ham, the space chimpanzee!

Milwaukee's Municipal Bldg. specifically the Health Department, was the object of J. Lukasavitz and J. Land as a project directed by their sociology teacher, Sister M. Stephanie. Both the girls and other members of the class considered the free day well employed as they learned the many important problems solved for the citizens of Milwaukee by this department.

The three stages of management are explained to T. Otterson, L. Sonoski, M. Gleissner, J. Peterson, J. Ziemer, C. Telderer and P. Molodovan by the able and experienced Stage Manager, A. Coenen.

TEEN STYLES OF 1961!

Being in style at all times has its advantages, so M. Leonardelli, I. Weber, B. Metzger, and B. Holzem are displaying the dresses and blouses they made in Sewing Class. This private fashion show has the models standing against the railing of the new choir loft erected on the site of the old projection room in the balcony of the auditorium.

Beat the Clock!

Among the highlights of the Pan American Club this year mention must be made of Father Luke McMillian's "talkie" slide show on November 24 at 7:45 a.m. in the morning!

President G. Quartana, Secretary S. Jacobs, Vice-president P. Renner and Treasurer M. Heitzer examined his tape recordings which were unusual in their beauty by having Mexican music as a background to his lecture.

Even though Father had an early morning start for his lecture, there were about sixty members present to hear and see "Mexico Today." Incidentally, the foreground shows the new tiling along the Cafeteria posts, while the excellent lighting system lends cheerfulness and charm to the most popular room at Messmer.

GERMAN CLUB

Under the direction of Sister Mary Fridegard, J. Lauman, B. Breu, L. Henewadl, T. Braunreiter, H. Radtke, G. Doolan, E. Schmidt, R. Bauer and D. Radtke are studying famous German composers and locating points of interest on the map of Germany in their club meetings. Their annual Christmas program was outstanding this year.

HEAVENLY

Year after year Messmerites make visits to the School Chapel and attend the Thursday adoration services. Since there were some changes made, this view will capture the “old look” for students in years to come. Rev Father B. Bartels is led to service by R. Kirchen.

Sister M. Sarah arranges the altar in the Convent Chapel, which is not quite as familiar to most students.

To the last gasp, with truth and loyalty.”*

Three members of the class of 1960 entered the Notre Dame Order, E. Scoby, B. Ostrowski, and B. Janda.

One of the duties of Sister M. Eloise is to remind the faculty and student body about the monthly novena in honor of the Infant of Prague for vocations. Below, Sister is shown arranging a flower in front of the statue and next to her is J. Karnitz, postulant in the convent of Our Lady of Victory Missionary Sisters.

Prayerpower

God save you brother. . .

At the Home and School meeting in November, Mr. J. Doyle and Sister Robert Marie, S.S.N.D. presented a dialogue entitled, "When Your Daughter Becomes a Nun."

The Men of Messmer club has organization, efficiency, drive, initiative and the good will of the entire Messmer faculty and student body.

Economically the men have helped to raise funds for a new golden rug in the Chapel and have made a further contribution toward a more beautiful chapel by adding golden drapes to replace the old green ones.

Aside from the dance, "Fall Frolic," the Men of Messmer have initiated a bar, yes, a bar at Messmer's basketball games. Of course, Coca-Cola is the strongest drink served, and if you like, pop corn and candy will help to ease hunger pangs until after the game.

HERE'S UNCLE SCROOGE

Messmer's senior mixed chorus gave a generous preview to the Home and School Association of its musical adaptation of "A Christmas Carol" by Dickens. This pleased audience, no doubt, helped to boost the ticket sales of "The Stingiest Man in Town" for the performances of December 17 and 18 were well attended. All persons concerned considered the venture a decided success.

YOUTH WANTS TO KNOW!

Kiwanis Club again provided the speakers for Messmer's annual Career Day talks on November the fifteenth. Mr. Warren Bovee, of Marquette University delivered the speech on Journalism. Chief Vernie L. Barnes of the United States Navy spoke to a select group in the library and the future business Misses of Messmer went to the auditorium for business hints, while girls interested in practical nursing listened to speakers in that field.

There were 36 topics and speakers, all of whom are in the top ranks of their respective professions.

SEPTEMBER FAREWELL

Rev. Msgr. L. Riedel opens his last Sodality meeting at Messmer.

I've got the world on a string of beads! More than one head was reverently bowed at the Living Rosary ceremony in the month of October. Messmerites invited their parents on Home and School Night to join them in prayer.

TEENAGE TRIBUTE

More plans for the Sodality and the WCAC convention were discussed by Rev. J. Leies, Mr. L. Fons, and Rev. L. Kelly. While Rev. H. Ide reports on the progress of the Talent Show, Rev. R. Schmit discusses finer points with Msgr. L. Riedel and Rev. B. Bartels looks at his notes.

Highlights

ROSES FOR REMEMBRANCE . . .

Since Sister Mary Ernestine, Vice-principal of Messmer had been with the Sodality and SUMA almost since the beginning fifteen years ago, the members wished to give her a token of appreciation so they presented her with a bouquet of roses at the annual moderators' dinner, while Messmer's present Sodality moderator, Sister M. Rosine, looked on in happy appreciation.

MAY DAY

On May 3, while the student body dedicated itself anew to Mary, Queen of Messmer, K. Waraksa crowned the Statue assisted by M. McGrogan.

STREET OF DREAMS

Sister Mary Claude, M. Karnitz, J. Ircink and M. Steele discuss the Sodality activities of the underclassmen.

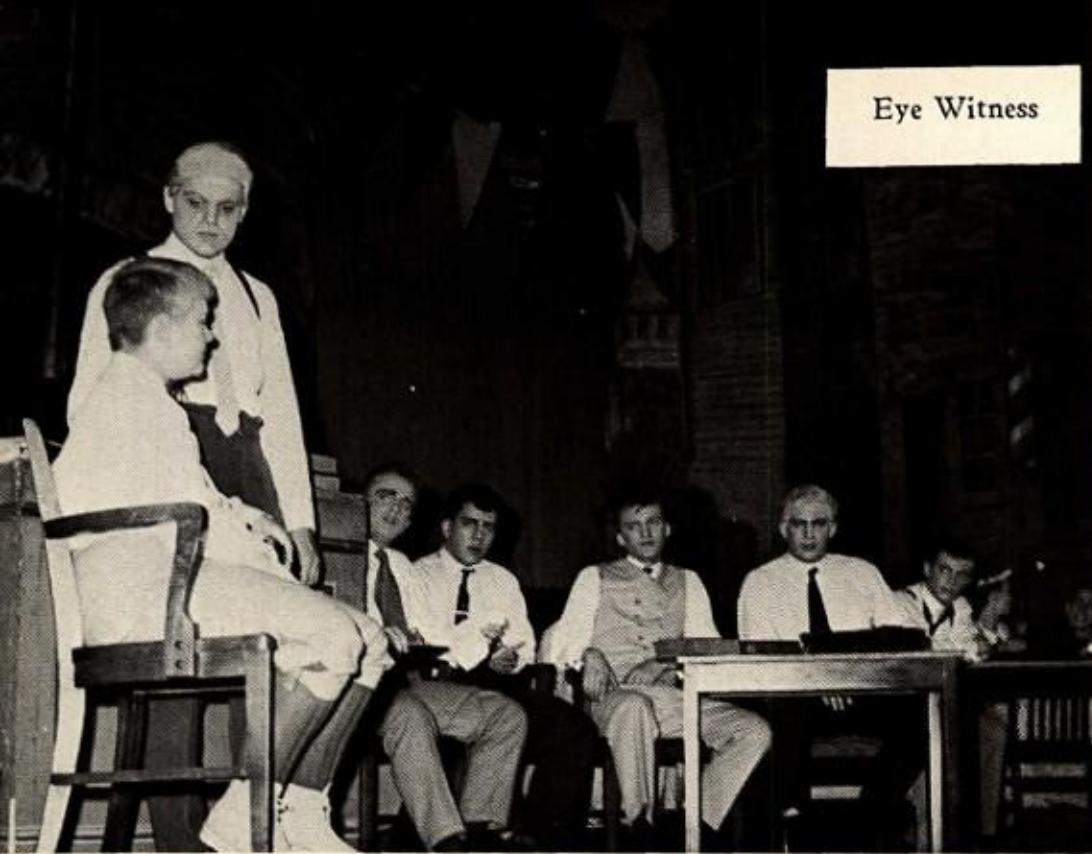

OUR FOUR FATHERS

Year after year the necessary changes are made in the Sodality and here Rev. B. A. Bartels, Rev. R. R. Schmit, Rev. H. J. Ide, and Rev. Msgr. L. E. Riedel discuss SUMA and other pertinent plans for the Sodality year.

C. Bloom, J. Siriani, and M. Janzen sparkle and shine for the WCAC Talent Show.

STAGE 61

THE GREAT SEBASTIONS

by

George Sokolsky

Lunt and Fontaine are a vaudeville combo in a mind reading act, and their bookings have carried them as far as Prague, Czechoslovakia, in late 1948. They were just in time for the upsurge of the Communists and the purported suicide of Jan Masaryk and for a pleasant while it looks as though they never get out of Prague alive! The result is a charming, winsome comedy.

The mind reading dual, "The Great Sebastians," have been friends of Jan Masaryk, and had lunch with him the day before his death, so the new Government in Czechoslovakia asks them to say publicly that Masaryk had been depressed and unhappy about the accident as head of the former government. When the Sebastians refuse to do this, they are in trouble. They are hired to do their mind reading act at the home of a Communist official, who hopes to use them to disclose a treasure for his government. However, the plot fails and they find themselves prisoners, with their life savings, in the form of a valuable postage stamp, in the hands of the enemy. After many ingenious intrigues an escape is managed (for this is a comedy) and even the postage stamp is retrieved, and the Sebastians dash for the border, accompanied by a reformed communist, who has decided he would prefer life outside the iron curtain.

WHERE THE BOYS ARE

School spirit ran high and also affected the youngest members of Messmer's family. Even Lynn Siegel was there for the Homecoming parade. Among the top float winners were rooms 112, 307, 312, and 7.

Although the Football team finished on the short end of the victory column this year, the players' outstanding determination and exceptional grandstand support highlighted the team's efforts.

BOWLING WITH THE CHAMPS

Every Thursday after school the Junior and Senior girls at Messmer hurry to Strachota's to mix up the pins. This year's organization of the teams is similar to the big league teams.

Wake Me When It's Over!

is most jolly. . .

Just One of Those Things

Basketball and volleyball are the favorites at the Girls' Gym Classes, while the waterfront seems to be more favored by the boys. Messmer's athletic program is a vigorous one in training the students to live healthy active lives and leads them to find greater fields of interests in the sport's world.

Diamonds are a boy's best friend, in baseball! The three returning lettermen, L. Wacker, pitcher; D. Hoffman, outfielder; E. Quinn, infielder; represented the seniors with honor in the 1961 baseball season.

CELEBRITY GOLF

Coach Simeth, in his tireless efforts to further athletic abilities and skills, shows P. Regan, M. Hartenstein and P. Kinnel how to solve some of the finer problems in the golf game.

VARSITY: The man at the top, Tom Flynn, is aided by J. Frank and followed by Row 1: R. Jelinski, R. Wienke, K. Wyderka, G. Herdegen, K. DeMuth, M. Hartenstein, T. Holton, R. Wagner, T. Cooper, J. Gonyo, and J. Hlavacek.

Perhaps the new uniforms and the personalized warmup jackets pepped up the team for a fine season.

Tom Flynn was chosen by the Sentinel unanimously to the Sentine! All-Catholic White Division Team. The White Division second team includes Tom Holton.

BASKETBALL "60-61"

Under the able leadership of "fiery" Coach Neja, our varsity men completed a successful season, their 6-4 mark earning them a third place in the White Division of the Catholic Conference. Highlighting non-conference plays was the edging of Rufus King, 61-57! Junior center Tom Flynn exploded for 27 points in defeating our neighboring rival.

The Blue Quintet, after losing the first three conference games, came alive to upset both Pius and Marquette. In the last three seconds of double overtime against Marquette, Tom Holton drove in and scored to climax the victory. Sparked by their four game winning streak, the Bishops came within a two point upset of undefeated St. Catherine's of Racine. On winning the Angels said it was "their toughest game in four years!"

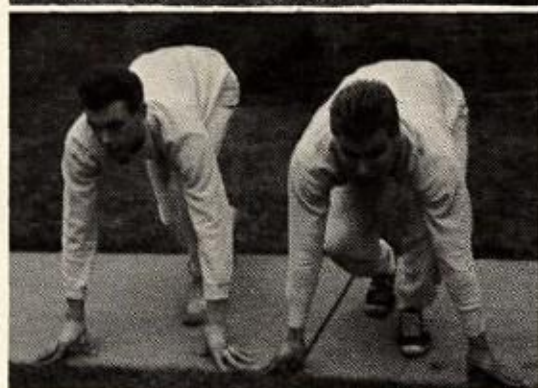

Our "unpredictable five" went on to finish the season with impressive victories over Don Bosco and St. Joseph's of Kenosha. High scorer in the White Division was our Junior Center, Tom Flynn with 202 points. As the Milwaukee Journal commented, "Messmer High Schools' basketball team might not have won the Catholic conference championship, but it had a lot to say about who did!"

THE SPORTS FRONTIER

Coach Simeth's hopes for a well balanced team seemed justified by the enthusiastic candidates who came for the spring training. New uniforms and various competitive events fostered greater enthusiasm as time for the 100 yard dash, the 220 yard dash, the quarter and half mile runs drew nearer.

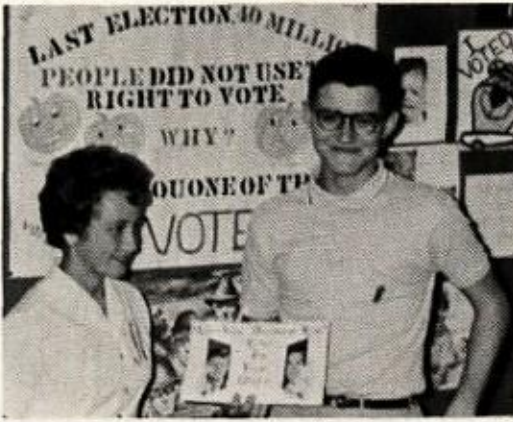

The High Jump, the Broad Jump and the Pole Vault found these athletes ready as well as victorious.

However, that mental athlete, William Shakespeare was absent.

J. Kass brought his iguana to school to show his biology teacher, Sister M. Evelyn. She was one of five Science teachers of Milwaukee to receive the Certificate of Merit and has been on the committees of both the Junior Academy of Science and the Southeastern Wisconsin Science Fair, has attended NSF sessions at Gonzaga and Marquette University. Her students' outstanding contributions again won prizes at the Science Fair in April.

M. Fix, J. Hlavechek were two of the winning students in the "right to vote" project in which election posters were displayed in Sister M. Eileen's history classes.

Gettysburg Revisited

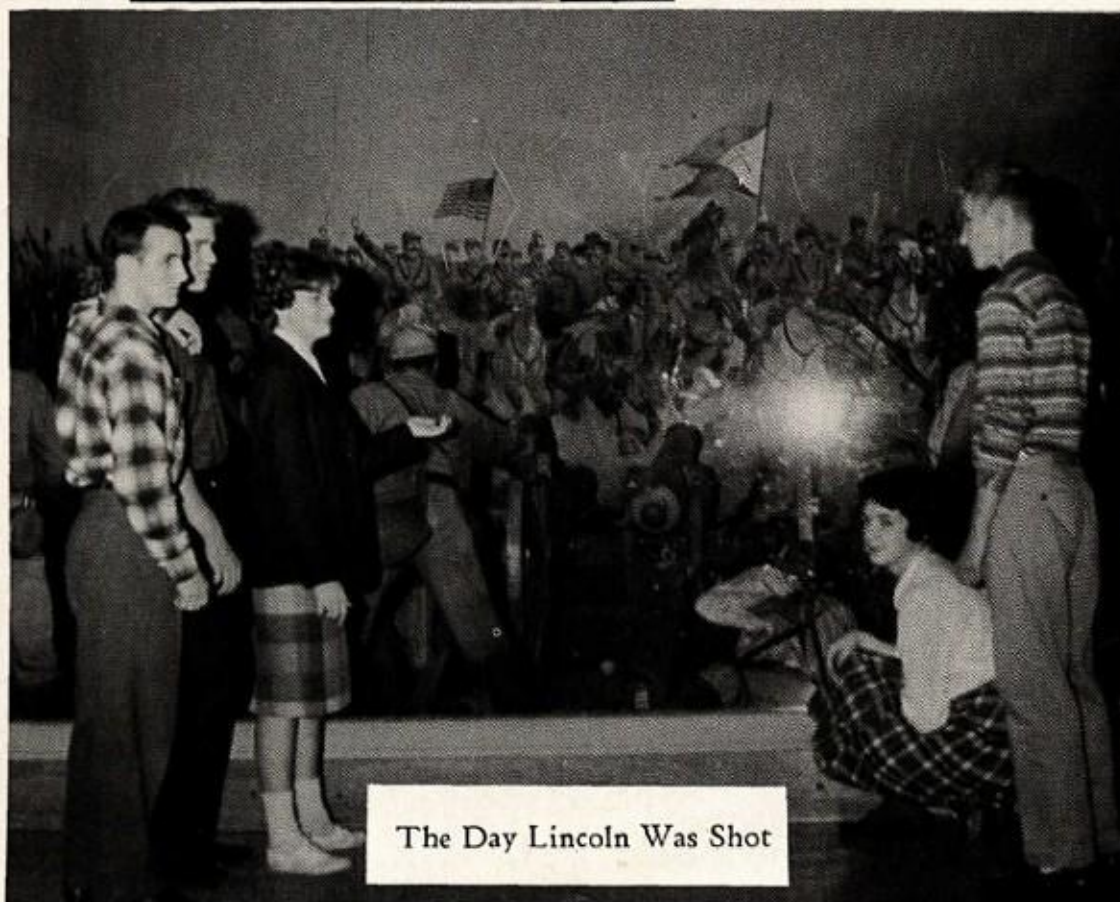

Future journalists, who meet every Friday morning at 8:00 AM, were very interested in reporting the high lights of the Civil War celebration.

A visit to the Milwaukee Museum by P. Alioto, E. Fuchs, B. Schoegler, P. Verhaalen, A. Schaefer gave the news frontier something aside from Shakespeare to report! The candid camera catches one of history's tragic hours while the Americanists watch the scene.

*I am, a real crazy for a guy who is nuts about all the senior girls just with all the girls next year. I course you don't need the luck.

Messmer High School

Milwaukee, Wisconsin

Dear,
Share a meal summer.

MOMENTS TO

This year's prom will certainly be remembered by all who attended. On April 10, at the Wisconsin Club, Larry Wacker and Sharon Hardtke reigned during an evening of delightful music and gay repartee.

THE LAST WORD

"SEW EASY"

Under the direction of Mrs. Zemlicka, Messmer's Misses presented an excellent style show.

FAIRER IN SPRING-TIME ARE YOU!

On May 13 sweet sounds of music greeted a capacity audience at Messmer's auditorium. This Spring Concert was unusual in its quality and tone. The band, the chorus, and the student-directed swing band manifested hours of weary practice which showed musical results.

LATEST ADDITION

Messmer's new rectory was completed in late March and April first was moving day. However, the two classrooms on the first floor are to be occupied only in September. Congratulations, Father Gunther! Such improvements are always welcome.

Sister M. Rozalia is practicing a little "prayola" at Messmer's grotto!

WINNERS ALL

In an essay contest sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, R. Tomczyk won an award for his unusual presentation of the subject.

As a member of the executive committee, Sister M. Evelyn views R. Sokolowski's contribution to the Sixth Annual Southeastern Wisconsin Science Fair with a judicial but pleasant eye.

One of her students, M. Stanislawski, has been awarded a National Science Foundation Grant and will therefore attend a pre-college institute at Northern Michigan College this summer.

REMEMBER

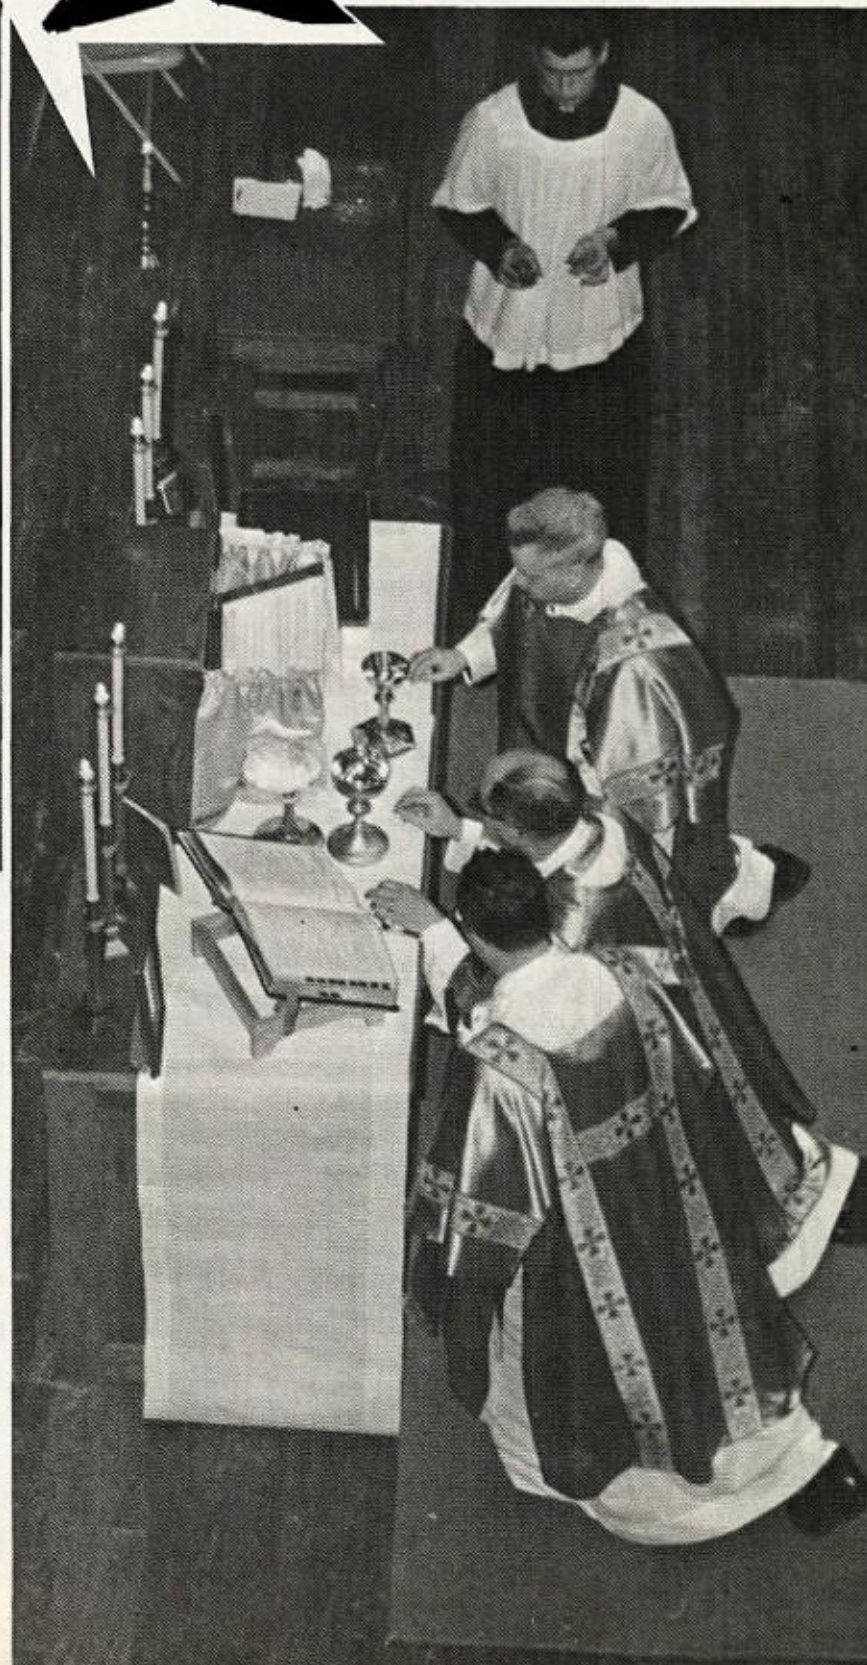

"Now Is the Hour"

On May 6, Rev. V. J. Kuehn celebrated his twenty-fifth year as a priest with a Solemn High Mass in the auditorium. Immediately preceding this was an assembly in which he was honored by Sister M. Ernestine and Mr. Regent, who represented the faculty, and Jim Driscoll, who conveyed the best wishes of the student body.

Queen of Messmer
and Queen of May

Sister Mary Richard, director of the Art Department, demonstrates to K. Sherman and K. Lieungh the indirect method of laying Venetian glass in which the figures and lettering are in reverse. Her department produces many unusual and interesting results at Messmer.

AWARDS

Participants in extra-curricular activities received their well-deserved awards at the annual assembly held May 18. Members of the Band, Foursquare, and Capitol were happy to receive major and minor letters. The Library Club and various other organizations issued similar awards. The year's dramatic successes were acknowledged by the distribution of trophies to the best actors and actresses. Outstanding scholastic abilities were especially honored.

Pictured below are the happy winners of medals and ribbons at the Science Fair and the successful competitors in the Wisconsin State Commercial Contest.

GRADUATION

SENIOR DANCE,

GRADUATION MASS,

SENIOR BREAKFAST,

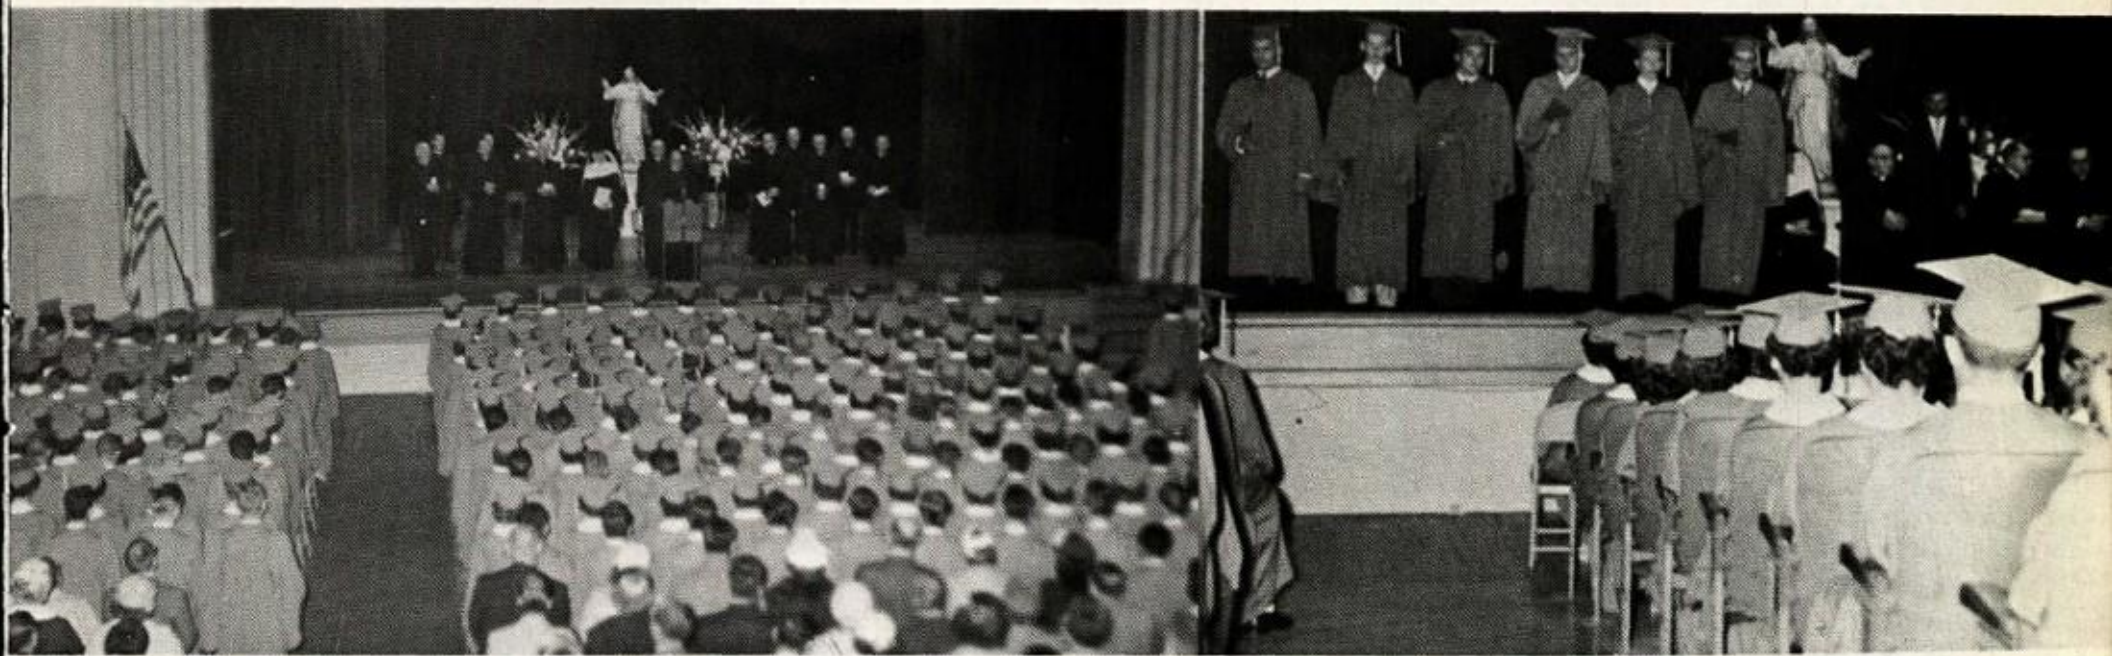

Sister Marion, Senior Council moderator, plans the various end-of-the-year activities with the help of her capable assistants.

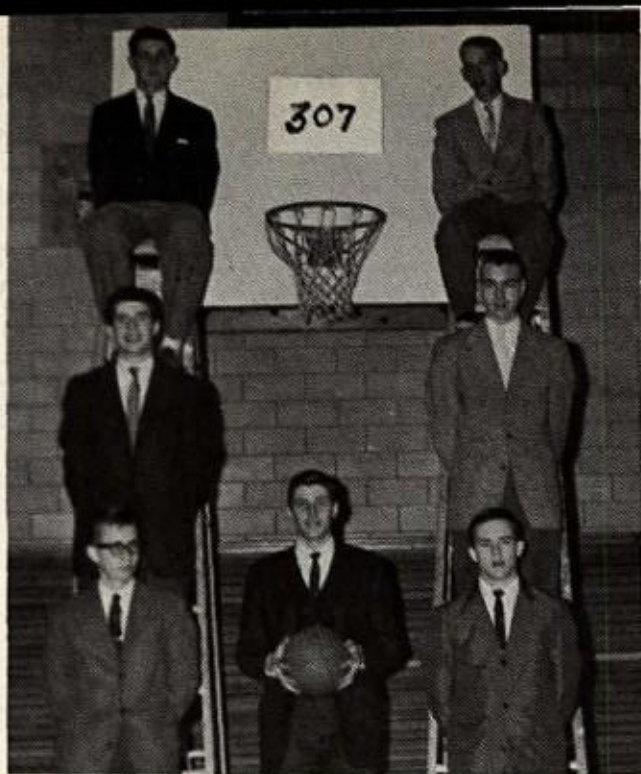

Messmer's 1960 Graduates were given a fitting farewell at the Mass and breakfast held in their honor on May 25. The big day, however, was May 29, when the Graduation exercises took place. As they go out into the world, our best wishes go with them.

CLASS OF '60

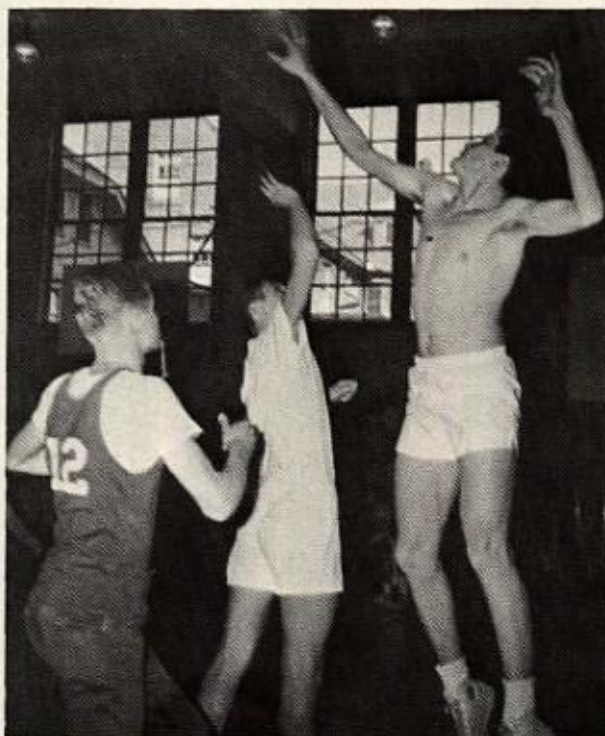

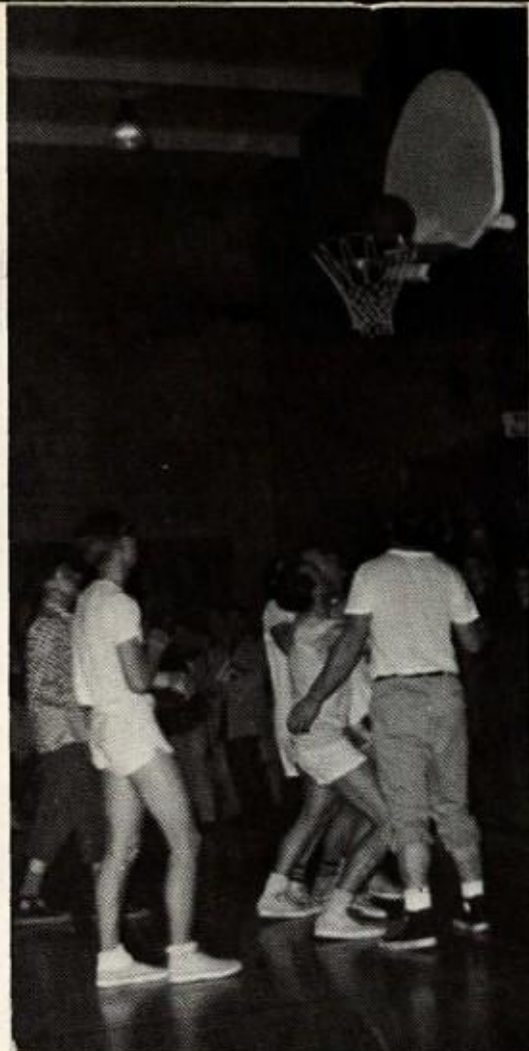

INTRAMURAL CHAMPS

Homeroom 307 beat senior homeroom 112 to win the intramural basketball championship.

Meet the champs as they appear at the left. Clockwise: D. Damp, J. Gilgenbach, B. Jelinski, J. Frank, R. Wasielewski, A. Maronek, and L. Wacker. Absent were J. Beni, T. Ryan, B. Griffa.

"THE BATTLE OF THE BALLS"

The students of Messmer always look forward to the faculty game, for it is at this function that our favorite teachers effectively make clowns of themselves. This year's game was no exception. The Juniors of 307 put up a desperate fight, but were edged out 58-52.

BOWLING CHAMPS

Clockwise: S. Noe, L. Kraus, T. Waldbauer, B. Lutz, and N. Krueger (captain).
